FAIRLINE TARGA 62 GT (2016)

IDEA YACHTING

DESCRIPTION

The Fairline Targa 62 GT (2016) represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a beautifully maintained example of this prestigious British sports cruiser, combining elegant styling, impressive performance and exceptional onboard comfort.
Presented in impeccable condition, she has been carefully looked after by her owner, with all routine maintenance and annual servicing consistently carried out. During the winter months, she has been stored indoors in a shed, further contributing to her excellent overall preservation.Powered by twin Volvo Penta D13C2-A engines delivering 900 HP each, she offers an outstanding balance of performance, reliability and cruising comfort.
This particular version features a practical and spacious layout, accommodating up to six guests in three cabins: two double cabins and one twin cabin, complemented by two bathrooms. Her interiors offer a welcoming atmosphere, while the generous exterior areas provide the perfect setting for relaxing and entertaining on board.
Over the past two years, the yacht has benefited from numerous improvement works, further enhancing her condition and onboard experience.
A highly attractive example of the Fairline Targa 62 GT, ideal for owners seeking a well-maintained, ready-to-enjoy yacht with a strong specification and a proven maintenance history.
